CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

Utah County Affairs - Painful Accident-Court Notes.

Special Correspondence. Provo, May 7.—The city council met this evening in regular session and transacted the following business: Grant C. Bagley appeared before the council in behalf of Mrs. Celesta Strong and stated that on June 27th, 1899, her husband, William Strong, while dis-charging the duties of police officer met his death at the hands of a prisoner that he had arrested. Inasmuch as the deceased had come to his death while in the employ of the city and as his family was, by his death, deprived of all means of support, the petitioner asked that the city do something to assist them. The matter was referred to the committee on judiciary with the mayor added to confer with Mrs. Strong in the mat-

The committee on finance reported on the proposition of widening the west end of Seventh street running to the lake, making the street a four rod street instead of a two rod street. The committee recommended that sufficient land be purchased on the north side of the street for that purpose from the Ferry farm west to the road which branches off running south of the lake resort for a distance of about 180 rods in length. The purchase price not to exceed $100 per acre. The recommendaions were accepted and the matter of urchasing reported back to the committee to complete. This road will be on the proposed drive way from the State Insane Asylum to the lake. The committee on public grounds and city property recommended that the a period of five years the east half of the city park for athletic purposes at the rate of 81 per year. The city will purchase sewer piping to properly drain
